Objectives

We are going to explore the following questions:

- 1. What are we trying to achieve by using picture books?
- 2. How can we use them?
- 3. Where can we get them from?

1) What are we trying to achieve by using picture books?

- We and our pupils will have a lot of fun!!
- Pupils get to see new or familiar language in context.
- They learn new vocabulary.
- They gain in fluency and confidence.
- The experience will motivate our pupils to learn languages.
- It will encourage them to read for pleasure.
- It will inspire them to write.
- Activity 1: have you used picture books in your language lessons before and if so, which ones and how? If not, what has stopped you? Please share your ideas in your group.

1) What are we trying to achieve by using picture books?

We want children to make progress!

Programmes of Study KS2

Languages – key stage 2

Subject content

Key stage 2: Foreign language

Teaching may be of any modern or ancient foreign language and should focus on enabling pupils to make substantial progress in one language. The teaching should provide an appropriate balance of spoken and written language and should lay the foundations for further foreign language teaching at key stage 3. It should enable pupils to understand and communicate ideas, facts and feelings in speech and writing, focused on familiar and routine matters, using their knowledge of phonology, grammatical structures and vocabulary.

5. develop accurate pronunciation and intonation so that others understand when they are reading aloud or using familiar words and

- The focus of study in modern languages will be on practical communication.
- Pupils should be taught to:
- 1. listen attentively to spoken language and show understanding by joining in and responding
- 2.explore the patterns and sounds of language through songs and rhymes and link the spelling, sound and meaning of words
- 3.engage in conversations; ask and answer questions; express opinions and respond to those of others; seek clarification and help*
- 4. speak in sentences, using familiar vocabulary, phrases and basic language structures
- phrases*
- 6.present ideas and information orally to a range of audiences*
- 7. read carefully and show understanding of words, phrases and simple writing
- 8.appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language
- through using a dictionary
- 10. write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly
- 11.describe people, places, things and actions orally* and in writing
- 12.understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high-frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.

9.broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including

The starred (*) content above will not be applicable to ancient languages.

2) How can we use picture books?
